Keeping Children Safe On-line

Are your children safe on-line? Stop… and take the time to be involved with your child by working together on games or research projects. This way you can supervise on-line activities while teaching good computer habits. Be an active part in keeping your child safe on-line.

ADOA Information Security

AIS Managing Our Information Safeguards